About Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan

Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan is an eminent charitable educational trust having large number of academic institutes in India and abroad. It was founded on November 7, 1938 by Dr. K. M. Munshi, with the blessings of Mahatma Gandhi and Sahithi Cheera. Presently trust is having 117 centres in India, 7 centres abroad and 355 constituent institutions. As per Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru's observation during his first visit to Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan in 1950 "The activities of trust cover all aspects of life from the cradle to the grave and beyond -- it fills a growing vacuum in modern life". The parent body, Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan was among the first educational trusts to have realized the need of quality education.

About Sardar Patel College of Engineering

Sardar Patel College of Engineering under the management of the Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan, was founded by Kulapati Dr. K.M. Munshi. It was established to meet the growing demand for engineering talent. The foundation stone of the college was laid on 17th September 1961 by Shri. Y. B. Chavan (the then chief minister of Maharashtra who later became the defence minister of India). The college was inaugurated by the first Prime Minister of Independent India, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru in 1962. The college is dedicated to Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, an eminent nation builder of independent India. The college is autonomous and affiliate to the University of Mumbai for full-time degree and post graduate degree courses. The Institute has set high standards for aspiring engineering students and also meets the needs of quality education in the challenging world of business. Over the last 55+ years the college has gained an excellent reputation in the field of technical Education. SPCE is one of the few colleges that have received Grade 'A+' rating for its aided courses from the Govt. of Maharashtra which certifies the spirit of excellence that the institute has symbolized and always practiced. Institute is celebrating its golden jubilee in the year 2012.
